WALTER BROWN.

Kansas City, Mo. April 20th 1886

John Lewis Esq.
Martinez Cal.
Dear Brother;

I have not sent the deed to the acres yet as I hoped to turn it over quickly and save taking the title at all. But if I do not sell within 6 or 8 days I shall take the deed and send it to you. I had a number of chancers to trade for rental property but they wanted too much for their houses. I shall try to sell quickly as David has sent you $ of his money and the bail will cover this week, so we can get the money all in our lot as we can do better with the money in our lot than two. If I can get out some money I will put it all together and we will see what can be done. With Regards to you and yours

I am Very truly
Walter Brown

J. & Ethel are well,
Love to Annie,
